DANIEL SLOSS: X

2018 – 2019 UK TOUR

Don't miss the stunning new show from Scotland's internationally acclaimed and award-winning comedy star!

Fast becoming one of the world's biggest comedy names Netflix released Daniel's two full-length comedy specials Daniel Sloss: Live Shows: DARK and Jigsaw on 11 September 2018 (his 28th birthday) streaming worldwide to 190 countries in 26 languages.

Daniel's smash-hit live tour is spanning more than 200 shows across 30 countries around the globe. He has performed on US TV's Conan a record ten times, to date has over 30 million views of his online stand-up clips, has sold out at eleven consecutive Edinburgh Festival Fringes (the world's biggest arts festival where he has been one of the biggest comedy ticket sellers for the past nine years), and played nine solo sold out seasons in London's West End as well as four seasons off-Broadway in New York. Daniel's fourth extended season at the prestigious Soho Playhouse has just sold over 5000 tickets on his 30 show run and has done so well that he is going back for a new run in June. As well as New York, Daniel has been selling out shows across the USA in venues such as the Largo in LA (where he sold out his first date in under 24 hours) and The Wilbur in Boston.

Still just 28, this is his incredible tenth solo show - "DANIEL SLOSS: X" has received rave reviews and comes with a warning that it deals with some challenging contemporary adult themes.

Daniel has also featured on Comedy Central's 'Roast Battles' and 'Drunk History', USA's 'Late Late Show With Craig Ferguson', ITV1's 'Sunday Night at the Palladium', made a broadcast BBC sitcom pilot and released his first DVD for BBC WW aged 19, and, still aged just 22 gave a 'Tedx' Talk which has over 600,000 views as well as wrote, crowd-funded, directed and starred in six-part online series 'M.U.F.F.'

DARK, created in 2015 when he was just 24, has been hailed internationally with groundbreaking material dealing with the death of his sister. The sequel Jigsaw (previously named SO?) has been nicknamed “the break-up show” (currently resulting in over 25,000 reported relationship breakups, 75 cancelled engagements and 80+ divorces – people are remarkably happy about it, even celebrating by sending Daniel messages about it, with one couple photographed signing decree nisi papers together). The third show in the trilogy, NOW, again covered difficult topics, including a 13 year old Daniel having been groomed. These shows toured extensively across 2015-2018 winning awards, receiving exceptional reviews and to audience acclaim across over 30 countries.

Age restriction 16+

Warning: Contains strong adult themes and language.

What the press have said about Daniel Sloss:

‘Smouldering... Deliciously dark stand-up... At 27, Scotland’s Daniel Sloss has, incredibly, now racked up his tenth Fringe outing. Tackling taboos (death, grooming) has become his forte and this latest continues the trend. “X” is a stunner of a show.’

★★★★★ Mail on Sunday, UK

‘Simply world class... hilarious’

★★★★★ Herald Sun, Australia

‘Dirty, sweet and clever’

New York Times

‘Funny, intelligent and charming’

★★★★★ Edinburgh Evening News

‘Hilarious... Devastatingly intelligent... Sloss is a festival highlight. See him’

★★★★★ The Age, Australia

‘Stunningly poignant... Achingly funny’

★★★★★ Theatre People

‘Dazzling wit... Unstoppable’

Daily Telegraph

‘Brilliant... a master craftsman... Sloss works best by creating moments of near unbearable tension and then puncturing them with a welcome but unexpectedly sharp barb. To be this good at 27 is a rare thing, and if Sloss can continue to evolve his material in intriguing and novel ways, he could become one of the greats.’

★★★★★ Time Out, Australia
